Your Partner for Uniform Supply

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the new Rizues catalogue. We are delighted to present our latest collection which covers all your uniform needs.

At Rizues, we are continually developing and improving the designs and structure of garments - everything from pleating on our healthcare tunics to aid movement and comfort, through to additional pockets on our action trousers for the practical working environment.

All our garments are developed and constructed taking into consideration the views and feedback from our wearer focus groups. Our philosophy is simple - we listen, we design.

Add our wealth of experience, knowledge of garment manufacturing and practical experience within the industry, and the results are a complete package of customer service focused uniform supply.

STOCK SERVICE

At Rizues we have a considerable stock holding capacity which guarantees availability and ensures main product lines are always ready for immediate despatch. Stock is held at our UK warehouse and distribution centre in Shipley, West Yorkshire - this is in addition to work in progress stock held at our production facilities overseas.

Our expertise in customer demand forecasting and inventory management is supported via specialist computer simulation forecasting models unique to this industry.

CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

At Rizues we have the personnel and expertise to manage bespoke uniform contracts within both the public and private sectors. We aim to simplify and stream line the total process including the implementation of transparent monitoring and measuring of service levels agreed. We offer a partner approach to uniform supply from garment design and development through to garment production and delivery.
